

Supporting and funding innovation in the construction and built environment sector: the European framework

The speech presents different connected initiatives in the field of R&I in construction industry, with particular emphasis on the existing ecosystems from the EU level up to the Regional level.