

Marco IUORIO-CV

Experienced manager with a proven history of working in the engineering and construction sector, both in the implementation of industrial association policies and public-private integration for the management of research and innovation initiatives.

Skilled in R&D management, construction, negotiation, business planning and analytical skills.

Marco Iuorio earned a Degree in Materials Engineering at the University of Naples Federico II (2014), a Master in Business Engineering at University of Rome Tor Vergata (2015), after that, in 2014, he attended an Executive Entrepreneurship Program at Mind the Bridge Foundation (San Francisco Bay area -US), an Executive programme in Administration, finance e control at LUISS Business School (2015-2016) and an executive programme in Innovation Management at Sole24 Business School.

From July 2016 he is General Manager of STRESS scarl, High Technology District for sustainable construction. From April 2017 he is co-founder and CEO of STRESS Value srl, a start-up operating in the field of building digitization through a bim-based integrated approach with 3d laser scanner technology.

He is also co-founder and CEO of GRISIS srl and MUST srl, two start-ups operating in the field of digital platform for infrastructure risk management and building facility management.

From 2023 he is board member of DIHCUBE, Digital Italian Hub for Construction and Built Environment, funded by the EU commission and the Italian ministry MIMIT, to support the digitalisation processes of SMEs operating in the construction sector.

He is a member of the Materials and Sustainability Committee of the ECTP (European Construction Technology Platform) and of the Structures and BIM commissions of the Order of Engineers of Naples.

He holds a patent (n. 102016000077435), for cement-based mix-Design for 3D printing of reinforced concrete structure.